

Blinded

Third Eye Blind

Just an old friend coming over now to visit you and That's what I've become
I let myself in though I know I'm not supposed to but I never know when I'm done And I see you fogging up the mirror
Vapor 'round your body glistens in the shower
And I want to stay right here
And go down on you for an hour Or stay, and let the day just fade away
In wild dedication, take the moment of hope
And let it run, and never look back at all the damage
We have done now to each other, to each other, to each other 'Cause when I see you, it's like I'm staring down the sun
And I'm blinded
There's nothing left to do
Still I see you I never believed that things they happen for a reason and They never go as planned
I wanted to thank you for a vision that was lost that you returned but You're past where you understand Now her appetite is blown, little else is known
Except she's a little angry, grabs a towel and looks away
And heat fades with the day
And I fall down on what to say Oh, something clean let me be clever, hey oh well, whatever
But that's not what I mean
When where we've been has left us burned
Still I won't turn now from a fight, you know I'll never win So when I see you, you know all the things I've done
Well I'm blinded
Like I'm staring down the sun
When I see you, when I see you, when I see you
It's like I'm staring down the sun, yeah Hey, I'm blinded
Hey, I'm blinded
Hey, I'm blinded Time passes and it tell us what we're left with
We become the things we do
Me, I'm a fool, spent from defiance, yeah, you got me but I didn't give up on you Icarus is not a tee shirt or a swan song, no
He is born again and it's not easy being me
When I can't promise I will mend or bend
When you believe that we are fixed now from our birth And I've just fallen back to earth
Still you know I'll try again 'cause I believe that we are lucky
We are golden we have stolen manners
In the days when we were one So when I see you, despite all that we've become
I'm still blinded

But I'm still staring down the sun
When I see you, when I see you, when I see you, when I see you Oh yeah, I'm still staring down the sun
Oh yeah, I'm still staring down the sun
Oh yeah, I'm still staring down the sun
I'm blinded When I see you, when I see you, when I see you
