

I Will Be Waiting

Lisa Stansfield

Tell me what you need to give
Let me know if I should lead you on
Take time to understand
The magic in you Don't be frightened of the truth
'Cos the truth can only make you stronger
Have faith in what you do
Have faith in you Whenever you call I'll be there
Honey I'll beg steal or borrow for you
'Cos baby there's so much to share in love
In love I will be waitin' for you
Waitin' for time to heal your wounds
And I will be thinkin' of you
Knowin' love will bring you back to me
'Cos our love is true If you've been saving up your tears
Well mine's a shoulder you can cry on
It's so easy to believe
Believe in me Only if you can heal the pain
All the pain that's swelling up inside you
Gotta face up to the truth
Be true to you Because baby, baby
I will be waitin' for you
Waitin' for time to heal your wounds
And I will be thinkin' of you
Knowin' love will bring you back to me
'Cos our love is true Only you the pain, babe
[incomp] pain
Whenever you call I'll be there
Honey I'll beg steal or borrow for you
Honey there's so much to share in love, in love I will be waitin' for you, oh baby
Waitin' for time to heal your wounds
And I will be thinkin' of you
Knowin' love will bring you back to me
'Cos our love is true You got to stay
[incomprehensible]
So when the love will bring you back to me
And our love is true
I will be thinking of you
