

For All Those Who Died

Bathory

For all those who cried aloud
But whose tears were never heard
For questioning one almighty father
Of a heavenly distanced world Beloved thee who submit
The holy writings assured
The golden cross stained with innocent blood
But stand yet a thousand heavenward Burning naked but smiling
Not full of fear but pride
Knowing death alone could cleanse them
Of the reasons for which they all die For all those who died For all those whose great beauty
Stirred their torturers to rage
And for all those whose great ugliness
Did the same For all those who cried aloud in vain
For mercy on the rack
But whom of dying naked in scorn
Not ashamed Burning naked but smiling
Not full of fear but pride
Knowing death alone could cleanse them
Of the reasons for which they all died For all those who died Pleas for mercy signs of guilt
Naked bodies broken on the wheel
Tears sign the confession
With crusted blood lips sealed Trial by water
For all those who died
