

Loaded Dice & Buried Money (2015)

Tyler Bryant & The Shakedown

She's a part of a ride over so quickly jump back in line
In a blink of an eye

give everything as she's robbing you blind She'll dig, dig just a little bit deeper she's a shakeup saint, god blamed for keeper and don't be fooled if she calls you honey

She's loaded dice and buried money She ain't no crime no evidence anyone else can see Cashing in instead of cashing out never packing up, just throwing down like she won't leave you to pay

She'll dig, dig just a little bit deeper
she's a shakeup saint, god blamed for keeper
and don't be fooled if she calls you honey

She's loaded dice and buried money Dig, dig, dig a little deeper grow, grow, take a keeper you're going down, going down Dig, dig, dig a little deeper go, go, play the keeper you're going down, going down
going down
going down
going down

She'll dig, dig just a little bit deeper
she's a shakeup saint, god blamed for keeper
and don't be fooled if she calls you honey

She's loaded dice and buried money
She's loaded dice and buried money
She's loaded dice and buried money
