My Intentions

Eddie Constantine Scorcha

I want you and i need you more than you I'll ever know and that's for sure!
I want you and i need you more than you I'll ever know and i am sure.
I've searched to find all over someone Just like you
You've got the love you've got the style wanna be with you All the while just think about it Just think about that Iam not in the game and iam not playing heartbreaks my intentions are most honourable just think about it Just think about that I want you and i need you more than you ill ever know and that's for sure! I want you and i need you more than you I'll ever know and i am sure
Dont ask me why I love you i just know I do
But I know I don't need nobody else
As long as I got you so think about it Just think about that.I am not in the game and Iam not playing heart breaks my intentions are most honourable so think about it Just think about that I want you and i need you
More than you I'll ever know
And I am sure
I want you babyi need you more than you I'll ever know and that's for sure
