

Angel In Disguise

Cinema Bizarre

I was betrayed, there is no fate
An open sore, I'm in too deep
I can't believe anymore
Will you take what's left of me
Reanimate my trust in fate Angel in disguise, you save my soul
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, just can't let go
'Cause it feels so right
You make my heart go blind The city sleeps in empty streets
No glam of hope, god forsaken
There's no escape, I'm so afraid of being cold
Just to cope with society Reanimate my trust in fate Angel in disguise, you save my soul
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, just can't let go
'Cause it feels so right
You make my heart go blind
You save my soul, you make my heart go blind There is no fate, we've been betrayed
Can you calm
(Ease)
My mind? I'm blind with rage
Reanimate my trust in fate
Search deep down inside
And heal the pain Angel in disguise, you save my soul
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, just can't let go
'Cause it feels so right
You make my heart go blind Angel in disguise, you save my soul
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, just can't let go
'Cause it feels so right
You make my heart go blind, you save my soul
You make my heart go blind
