

Girl You Rock My Soul

Roseaux

Girl, you rock my soul
You gave me full control
You made my life so happy
When you walked through that door
So don't come running back
With tears in your eyes
'Cause I won't be the one
To listen to your pleading
Won't be the one
You were my inspiration
My open constellation
But girl yio hurt my pride
Now there's no love inside
So don't come running back
With tears in your eyes
'Cause I won't be the one
To listen to your pleading
Won't be the one
So don't come running back
With tears in your eyes
'Cause I won't be the one
To listen to your pleading
