Time for Light

Screaming Trees

Where are you walking to?
There's a trap door straight ahead, falling through
What are you gonna do, gonna do?
Visions have us on the wall
Sister's spellbound in the hall
The house is dark and everybody's happyClose my eyes to the dawn
There's a veil of destruction comin' on
It's all we never said, never said
Visions have us on the wall
Sister's spellbound in the hall
The house is dark and everybody's happyThe time for light is over
Darkness dropped you couldn't deal
These are things we shouldn't let go
Secrets that you shouldn't know
But it's alright, yes it's alright
Oh come on, come on, it's alright, yes it's alright
Just as far as you know, it's alrightWhere are you walkin' now?
Your neck's inside a trap comin' down
Our heads are filled with all the things
We used to say and everything we never said, never said
Visions have us on the wall
Sister's spellbound in the hall
The house is dark and everybody's happy
[Inaudible]
