

The Rest Of Your Life

Kenny Loggins

Walkin' on my own,
Absolutely free,
Solitary life,
The only life for me,
Midnight caf  ,
Dinner alone,
Independent heart,
Is all I've ever known, Oh I believe,
I had no one to lose,
And nobody fooled but me Fire in the storm,
Rainbow in the night,
Lightning on the sea,
Heaven in your eyes,
Never before,
The magic of night,
It happened in my arms,
Right before my eyes Oh, now I believe,
There's a god watching over me,
From up here, I can see the rest of my life,
It's got directions starting over,
So hold me, it's destiny,
'Cause from tonight I know,
You know the rest of your life is mine,
How long can I be this sure,
Only for the rest of your life. Self-assured before,
Had it figured out,
All I didn't know,
Is what it's all about,
You walked into my world,
Then it came alive
I never knew before,
Why I survived. Oh, now I believe,
There's a god watching over me,
From up here, I can see the rest of my life,
You're giving me directions starting over,
So hold me, it's destiny,
'Cause from tonight I know,
You know the rest of your life is mine, Whoa, oh whoa,
Whoa, I know it's over,

The past is over, ooh yeah
You can't go back to sleep,
Once you've seen what you have seen
And know what you know about love.Over
Hold me, it's destiny,
And from tonight I know,
You know the rest of your life is mine,
How long can I be this sure,
Only for the rest of your life.
