Knockin on Mine

Paul Westerberg

Alright, you read common knowledge, stockpile your brain
You get burned in the sun, you get wet in the rain
What they teach you to fix, needs to be broke
I say, he who laughs first didn't get the joke
Go on, untap your mind, quit knocking on mineAn English teacher from Vancouver
She asked me to write something for her students
I wrote knowledge adds, wisdom let slide
She says now really? I wanna tap your mindQuit knockin' on mine
Walkin' on
Knockin' on mineKnowledge is power, got your books go read 'em
Wisdom is ignorance, stupidity, I call freedom
Knockin' on mine, get outComic books, the Bible, road maps, pornography
Anything you wanna read
Go out and sit in a field sometimeQuit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)
Quit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)Power got your books go read 'em
Wisdom is ignorance, stupidity, I call freedom
Quit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)You read common knowledge every day
You're as common as that newspaper you throw away
You get burned in the sun, you get wet in the rain
Won't you ever change, won't you ever learn?Quit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)
Yes sirQuit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)
Quit knockin' on mine
(Knockin' on mine)
