Breakthrough

Jazzyfatnastees

How can I break through?
The closer I get the further away from you
Why are you pulling away from me?
I only want to comfort you
And heal all your pain, take it all away

You must not know what you mean to me
So caught up inside 'til you set me free
I want the whole world to dance with me
You've altered my light now I'm brighter than before
I feel so much more

For so long
(For so long)
You been along
(You been along)
Needing to love
(Needing to love)
Someone to hold
(Someone to hold)
I want to help you breakthrough
Find that essence of you

Now that you here
(Now that your here)
Don't be afraid
(Don't be afraid)
Take my hand
(Take my hand)
Whatever I say
(Whatever I say)
Let me show you what happy could be

Got to let go what's keeping you so cold
Been draggin' yourself along your lonesome road, yeah
You're not sure you held a loving hand
That's the thing that you don't understand
Don't breakdown on me, don't force me to leave you

Are a part of my soul but don't you know, yeah

Came into your life to make you whole
Already been planned to go on, you have to cope
You need to find your peace instead of fighting me
I could be your release

For so long
(For so long)
You've been along
(You've been along)
Needing to love
(Needing to love)
Someone to hold
(Someone to hold)
I want to help you breakthrough
Find that essence of you

Now that you here
(Now that your here)
Don't be afraid
(Don't be afraid)
Take my hand
(Take my hand)
Whatever I say
(Whatever I say)
Let me show you what happy could be

How can breakthrough to you?
For so long
(For so long)
You've been along
(You've been along)
Needing to love
(Needing to love)
Someone to hold
(Someone to hold)
I want to help you breakthrough
Find that essence of you

Now that you here
(Now that your here)
Don't be afraid
(Don't be afraid)
Take my hand
(Take my hand)
Whatever I say

(Whatever I say)
Let me show you what happy could be
Oh, no
