

Rose Colored Glasses

School of Fish

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Everyone is standin' 'round waitin' for their high
Feel the world turn upside down when you step inside
Need a drink of water, keep you standin' up
Right now she's everythin' and you're not enough
Now you're here again, it had you convinced
You are part of something you haven't found since
See her makin' tracks for somewhere far away
Think that you'll join her if she'd let you stay
And everythin' looks good
If it don't you twist it right
Everythin' you see, you see tonight
Rose colored glasses
Finally you speak, truth comes out
Your world is inflated, it's all you think about
Can't stop starin', you don't want to ask
With everthin' in common it won't last
And everythin' looks good
If it don't you twist it right
Everythin' you see, you see tonight
Rose colored glasses
Rose colored glasses
Half alive you step inside your Helium balloon
It's the only way to rise above the room
It's temporary, colors gettin' soft
Groove goes on forever, only you can get you off
And everythin' looks good
If it don't you twist it right
Everythin' you see, you see tonight
Rose colored glasses
Rose colored glasses
