Yearning

Bradshaw

A moment in time
despair and fear nothings ahead
you are right here
near is the pain
tragedy changing you dearCatastrophe everythings gone
nothing today
was agreed upon
you had no choice
as you watched the curtains be drawnHands in the air prayers and hymns
everyone's here
it's time to begin
all that was there
and what might have been
is no longer here
yearningThe hour is late it's almost dawn
without an end
we can't go on
as dark as it seems soon you will see the day sunPurchase the dream there is the road
permanent sleep
nice dreams will come
try to have faith
to carry you on as you runHands in the air
prayers and hymns
all that was there
yearning
yearning
yearning

and hurting yearningWaiting for where it will take you taking all your time Waiting for where it will take you
taking all your time
yearningHands in the air
yearning
yearning
yearning
yearning
