Better Days

Dylan In the Movies

This is the day
I will carry with me
To the grave
I will stand in for you

I think of you when All the flowers come back in the spring
I will stand in for you
I will stand in for you

Hold to my Better Days
I'll tame my evil ways
If I'm lost in a thought It's 'cause I'm thinking a lot about you
about you

These are the things
That keep me tripping and stumbling
But I still stand in for you
But I still stand in for you

Hold to my Better Days
I'll tame my evil ways
If I'm lost in a thought
It's 'cause I'm thinking a lot
about you
about you

There is a car in the road
and inside of it
and inside of it
This house was once my own
And I love you

Hold to my Better Days
I'll tame my evil ways
I might be over the shock

But I haven't forgot
about you
about you
