Badlife

My Life with the Thrill Kill Kult

I've always fought against evil and I've always won
I've always fought against evil and I've always wonHe talks in his sleep to the ultra violet kind
He stalks to the beat in a violent state of timeHe's the babble of badlife, words are words
No matter how you pay the priceHe's the babble of badlife, words are words
No matter how you pay the priceSpirits are never destroyed, fear his fire eyes burnin'
Lost forever in the void, fear his fire eyes burnin'
Fear his fire eyes burnin'
Fear his fire eyes burnin'He talks in his sleep to the ultra violet kind
He stalks to the beat in a violent state of timeHe's the babble of badlife, words are words
No matter how you pay the price
He feeds on the loveless in his sorid silent crimeFear his fire eyes burnin'
Fear his fire eyes burnin'
Fear his fire eyes burnin'
Fear his fire eyes burnin'I've always fought against evil and I've always won
I've always fought against evil and I've always won
