

Only a Matter Of Time

Whitney Wiatt

I can hear it in the wind
And when we are together
I can feel it
There's something in your smile
That I cannot seem to find but I just need it
Maybe it's just time for me to tell you
All the stories I've been keeping
Call it love
But I can tell you I don't know the meaning
I wanna know what it's like to be loved by
The road ahead is long enough for me
To figure out what feels right
The sun is going down
And I can see it in your eyes it's been a long day
I promise I'll be here for you
Until you wake tomorrow is a new day
Maybe it's just time for you to tell me
All the secrets you've been hiding
Cause I could see it in your eyes
You've waited so long for the right thing
I wanna know what its like to be loved by
The road ahead is long enough for me
To figure out what feels right
And the sun is brighter
When you are alone with me
When its night time
You're the only one in my dreams
But you can't see me
I wanna know what it's like to be loved by
The road ahead is long enough for me
To figure out what feels right
It's only a matter of time
