Might Have Ben Hur

Switchfoot

Everything I know tell me she's everything That I could hope for Everything I know tell me I can't let her Walk awayI took my time to find the words I hoped she'd feel the same'Cause I want someone to share my smile To share the pain, to be there when the sea turns gray To share the joy for better or worse And I thought that it might have been herWonder if she knows The way I saw her soul light up my life Wonder if she knows Of the pain I feel tonightI took my time to find the words I hoped she'd feel the same'Cause I want someone to share my smile To share the pain, to be there when the sea turns gray To share the joy for better or worse And I thought that it might have been herAnd I thought that it might have been her And I thought that it might have been her And I thought that it might have been herAnd I thought that it might have been I thought that it might have been I thought that it might have been her
