

Sweet Adorable You (with The Anita Kerr Quartet)

Perry Como

Who? You, who? You
Sweet, adorable you Who is the one I couldn't do without
And who is the one I always think about?
In every little thing I do, nobody but you
Sweet, adorable you, you, you, you (Who)
Sweet, adorable you Where do I go, when I need company
And who do I need to make things right for me?
The one who makes my dreams come true, nobody but you
Sweet, adorable you, you, you, you (Who?)
Sweet, adorable you I'm such a lucky guy and that's the reason why
I'll always be true
There's not a minute of the day that can keep me away
From the love of sweet little you In every dream, you are the only one
And in every dream, I always seem to run
Until I'm standin' there with you, nobody but you
Sweet, adorable you, you, you, you (Who?)
Sweet, adorable you He's such a lucky guy and that's the reason why
He'll always be true
There's not a minute of the day that can keep me away
From the love of sweet little you In every dream, you are the only one
And in every dream, I always seem to run
Until I'm standin' there with you, nobody but you
Sweet, adorable you, you, you, you Sweet, adorable you
(You, you, you, you, who?)
Sweet, adorable you
