

So You Say

Clap Clap Riot

Mamaâ€™s in the kitchen aha
Mama likes to think sheâ€™s a star
Sitting back and smoking cigars
But Mamâ€™s in the kitchen aha

So you say, you say

But Mama likes to think sheâ€™s a star
Judge her by her clothes and her car
She says â€˜donâ€™t you want to be like Mamaâ€™?
But know sheâ€™s on the kitchen she just knows what she wants.

So you say, you say, you say what you should
And you do, you do, you do what you're told
So you say, you say, you say what you should
And you do, you do, you do what you're told

So you say, so you say
So you say, so you say

And I can see just what you want
You want to be the one to watch
And I can see just what you want
You want to be the one to watch

So you say, so you say
So you say, so you say
