

Lessons For The Lover

Usher

Turn the light on!
How could someone hurt you
But still make you feel so good?
Holler, scream and curse you
You stand there and let them do it
Just cause he gives you pain,
That dont mean he aint the one!
Fuck you out your brain, youll be smiling when hes done

Pre-chorus:

So my advice would be
No, dont leave, dont go ... so easy!
Let that argument turn you on!
Its worth it!

Chorus:

And these are the lessons learned by lovers
These are the reasons we make love
Theres no exception, one day
We gotta look each other in the eye
You learn all these lessons when youre in love
Lesson for the lover, for lover!
Lesson for the love, oh lover!
So hard to imagine living life without them there
Cause now youre so caught up in the passion
But this shit is beyond compare, yeah!
Cause dont it make your heart beat, beat, beat like a drum
You fall hard, but think about how hard you come

Pre-chorus:

So my advice would be
No, dont leave, dont go so easy!
Let that argument turn you on!
Its worth it !

Chorus:

And these are the lessons learned by love
These are the reasons we make love
Theres no exception, one day
We gotta look each other in the eye
You learn all these lessons when youre in love
Lesson for the lover, for lover!
(Turn the lights on!)

Lesson for the lover, oh lover!
No one wants to be fighting all day love all night love
So well just scream til we start making love.
