

Hourglass

Galactic Pegasus

Maybe it's time that we did a little more than rely on cheap thrills
You'll do whatever it takes to keep on laughing
Even if it means you're passing life by
It's time you kill

Your lives reduced to nil
When it starts to sink in, you're already too late
I've fallen too far again
These trends are guiltless
Get low with broken souls
This curse is ageless like those you know
I feel I've fallen again
This world is sightless

Take this to your salvation
Can we go back to what makes sense?
I've fallen far again
When it starts to sink in
Your lives reduced to nil

Here with me (In this pit)
You will be (Cleansed of sin)

Your lives reduced to nil
When it starts to sink in You're already too late
I've fallen too far again
These trends are guiltless
Get low with broken souls
This curse is ageless like those it takes
I feel I've left behind all the things that matter
I feel like a fake

Your lives reduced to nil
When it sinks in and you need a thrill
I've fallen too far again
We are broken souls and we need a trend
So gather around in fear
And spill your blood for the past few years
Guiltless like those you know

Maybe this is life and the way it goes

Your lives reduced to nil
