

Japanese Cars

Royal Bangs

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

There is a paint on your bedroom wall
Pick off a piece for my sake and keep it
Your insane and you taste like smoke
Your parents made you, you never get cold
Japanese cars keep us safe tonight
Think the workmanships good and the lights burn bright
This one looks like a winner to me
Look it comes with a rosary
We don't know shit about cars
In the back seat we close our eyes
And the headlights fade from red to pink
If it were, if it were just a trick
I wouldn't want to know, I'll pretend
Japanese cars keep us safe tonight
Think the workmanships good and the lights burn bright
This one looks like a winner to me
Look it comes with a rosary
Japanese cars keep us safe tonight
Think the workmanships good and the lights burn bright
This one looks like a winner to me
Look it comes with a rosary
We don't know shit about...
