

Sadness

Selah Sue

Should I go alone when the world's turning a blind eye?
Should I stay strong when I'm standing on the front line?
And the feeling is not the same, no
Can't take it back again
Yes I do it all (yes I do it all), for the pain I'm in 'Cause now all I have is sadness
What do I do with all this sadness?
I just can't take it no more
Sadness, it's eating me alive Don't make me pull out the big gun yeah
Tears like bullets and they fall like rain
Lost in the feeling, words can't explain
I'm gone away
I'm gone away I would give anything to free my mind
It's just a slave
Yes I would even pay my weight in gold
Do you feel me Now nothing feels the same, no
Can't take it back again
But I still do it all, for the pain I'm in 'Cause now all I have is sadness
What do I do with all this sadness?
I just can't take it no more
Sadness, it's eating me alive Don't make me pull out the big gun yeah
Tears like bullets and they fall like rain
Lost in the feeling, words can't explain
I'm gone away
I'm gone away Don't make me pull out the big gun yeah
Tears like bullets and they fall like rain
Lost in the feeling, words can't explain
I'm gone away
I'm gone away 'Cause now all I have is sadness
What do I do with all this sadness?
I just can't take it no more
Sadness, it's eating me alive
