

Ladybug

Go Fish

I had a brother, yes i did.
I guess you could say he was a unique kid.
Everyday after school, he'd be playin' outside, playin' outside.
One day i saw him in the yard, and what i saw left me permanently scarred.
I just couldn't believe, the horror i saw, horror i saw.

As the sun heated up, he pinned the ladybug down.
He took his magnifyin' glass, i heard a hiteous gruesome sound.

There was a ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk.
Listen to it sizzle while it burns in the sun.
Ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk,
And if that buger was a burger then it'd be well done.

Well the years went by but i never forgot, about the messed up tan that insect got.
What it do, to deserve to get burned like that.
Here's a little tip, if your a bug, fly away from my brother, cause he's a bug.
And if your wings start to get hot, start runnin' with all six legs.

Cause when the sun heats up, the light goes shinin' down.
You wonder, "whats that smell?", and then you hear the sound.

There was a ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk.
Listen to it sizzle while it burns in the sun.
Ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk,
And if that buger was a burger then it'd be well done.

Ladybug, ladybug.
Poor little ladybug.
(He never saw it comin', one minute you were flyin' around)
Ladybug.
You never saw it comin'.
The next thing you know you hear the hiteous sound.

Oh, there was a ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk.
Listen to it sizzle while it burns in the sun.
Ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk,
And if that buger was a burger then it'd be well done.

There was a ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk.

Listen to it sizzle while it burns in the sun.
Ladybug fryin' on the sidewalk,
And if that buger was a burger then it'd be well done.

---

Lyrics submitted by jayde.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>