Voices In My Walls

Lillian Axe

"We're not here to hurt you," the voices told me, then they laughed away.
"Sit, relax, stay calm." Now they control me they rule my day.Bridge:
Everybody needs someone to talk to
With a fire and a body that can touch you,
Even now I think I need somebody
Don't think that I could ever have my time aloneChorus:
'Cause I'm a captive soul,
To the voices in my wallsFear has settled in, my room commands me,
Keeps me warm inside,
Sleep exists no more, a living zombie
I'm mystified.Bridge'Cause I'm a captive soul,
Listen in wonder, the secrets I've been told
By the voices in my walls"Come with us give us control, and we'll possess you heart and soul,
You'll see new colors you can't describe,
And feel strange things you've never tried."Candlelight for me, a fading sunset,
Take me awayI'm a captive soul
Living in wonder the secrets I've been told
By the voices in my walls,
I'm a captive soul,
You gotta believe me,
The secrets amaze and confuse me
With no self-control,
The voices are calling me now
The voices are calling me now
I'm a captive soul
