

Love Letter

Ian McLagan & The Bump Band

I'd send you a love letter
But I can't find you anywhere
You may not be hiding from me

But I

Can't find you.

I'd bake you a birthday cake
Candles and your name in blue

I just wanna celebrate

That I

Can't find you.

I'd paint your picture
Like Rembrandt, only better
I'd capture the light in your eyes

There's only one thing

Missing

And that's you

But I'll keep on searching until I
Find you.

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter

But I can't find you anywhere.

But I'll keep on searching until I
Find you.

I'd send you a love letter

Though you may never read it

That it goes out from my heart

It's all that matters

If anything really matters

I just wanna celebrate

That I,

Oh I

Can't find you.

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter

But I can't find you anywhere.

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter

I'd send you a love letter
But I can't find you anywhere.
