Warm

SG Lewis

I'm a little shy, but I know you know
I've done this too much cause I been alone
I'm feeling this devotion, touching your emotion
I can see the love run right out of youMoments like these are golden
Never felt so open
Even if i'm dreaming, I'm dreaming with you
So breath my air, and kiss me there
Cause i'm a little cold but I'll warm up with you
Out of my chest when you put it there
Yeah i'm a little cold but I've warmed up with you
Woooo ohhhhhh ah ha ha haaa yeah x4I don't care too much for valentines
I just need your skin next to mine
I'm feeling this devotion, touching your emotion
I can see the love run right out of youMoments like these are golden
Never felt so open
Even if I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming with you
So breath my air, and kiss me there
Cause i'm a little cold but I'll warm up with you
Out of my chest when you put it there
Yeah i'm a little cold but I've warmed up with you
Woooo ohhhhhh ah ha ha haaa yeah x4
