

21st Century Girl

Willow Smith

Give me an inch
I promise I'll take a mile
Danger is beauty
I'll face it with a smile I'm on a mission
With no restrictions
Don't second guess myself
I'm born to be wild I'm the type of chick
That likes to rock the beat
I like to rock the beat
I like to rock, to rock the beat 21st century girl, I do what I like
21st century girl, I'm taking you for a ride
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up
Just live it up 21st century girl, a beautiful life
21st century girl, us walking side by side
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up
Just live it up Step on the brakes, then I'ma step on the gas
I am a rebel, but I do it with class
I set the boundaries, the rules don't own me
I'm living life on the edge, I choose my path I'm the type of chick
That likes to rock the beat
I like to rock the beat
I like to rock, to rock the beat I'm the kind of chick
That knocks you off your feet
That knocks you off your feet
That knocks you off, off your feet 21st century girl, I do what I like
21st century girl, I'm taking you for a ride
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up
Just live it up 21st century girl, a beautiful life
21st century girl, us walking side by side
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up
Just live it up I feel like I can take over the world
If only I get my dreams out
Pull gold from my soul, pull diamonds from my heart
It's that new girl thinking and this song is just the start 21st century girl, I do what I like
21st century girl, I'm taking you for a ride
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up
Just live it up 21st century girl, a beautiful life
21st century girl, us walking side by side
21st century girl, yeah, I'm gonna live it up

Just live it up, yeah 21st century girl

I'm a 21st century girl

I'm a 21st century girl

I'm a 21st century girl
