Impossible (Acoustic Version)

Something for Kate

Don't listen too hard to the beating of your wings
Or you might fall
You only do what you do 'cause a part of you believes
That you're here at all
But something reminds you
And sometimes I can hear it tooAnd I don't wanna be the rain
Falling on this impossible parade
So as sure as I can be of anything
I will be so sure about this impossible thingI, I, I'm hiding out when the chameleon appreas
She comes around
With a werewolf mood swinging from a chandelier
And I hit the ground
Till something reminds me
It's a fools shiveringOh
And I don't want to the be rain
Falling on the impossible parade
So as sure as I can believe in anything
I will bite my tongue and believe in impossible things
Yeah, I will bite my tongue and believe in impossible things
Yeah, I will bite my tongueI saw the way
I saw the full moon
I was the way
I saw the full moonI saw, I saw, I saw the full moon.
I saw the way, the way, the way.
I saw the full moon, the full moon.
