

Sea of Sound

Pale Saints

Your body's cold, you're on the bed
I'm the only one who knows you're there
I'm reeling in that silver line
The cord that brings you back in time Reality obscures my view, the pain of wanting too
When am I going to be a part of you? Your eyes are closed, they're in your hair
But I'll make it, just say you care
When every one has had their fill
You're holding on although you're ill I watch the ripples in the storm
Until I have the brew
And then I throw them evening [unverified]
Over you How can you want to stay like this?
The choice is ignorance or bliss
We'll go together, don't be scared
It won't take long, we'll soon be there When we arrive, just look around
There's so much to be found
We'll sail away upon a sea of sound
