Falling Home

Jude Cole

Fields of patience
Mountains of pain
Innocence fell from this runaway train
Planets of mercy
Great skies of hope
Send me an angel with a holy ropeDaydreams and wishes
Tarnish and rust
Truth is here somewhere, coughing up dust
Crawl through the madness
Climb up the cracks
Wisdom is speaking from the zodiacPull back the lens
On the earth's great design
And I'm summer rain gently falling home
Leap from a star into the great unknown
Forgiveness is a high jump
And we're falling homeSomeone got a lawyer
Someone got a friend
Looks like we're human
To the mortal endI'll take all the green trees
You can have the sun
If this land is our land
There's some work to be donePull back the lens
On the earth's great design
And I'm the autumn leaves, weightless, falling home
Race through the clouds
Past the gravity zone
Forgiveness is a swan diveAnd we're falling home, we're falling home
We're falling home
Yeah, yeah
Falling home, we're falling home
We're falling home
Yeah, yeahPull back the lens
On the earth's great design
And I'm Aristotle waiting by the phone
Count the years
We held the hurt inside
Forgiveness is a back flipAnd we're falling home, we're falling home
We're falling home
Yeah, yeah

Falling home, we're falling home
We're falling home
Yeah, yeah
