Wake Up

Fergie

What?
Uh uh, ah huh
Give it to me now
Oh well, ah, why do I keep pulling out the roots of my hair?
I'm picking at my face, it's obvious there's nothing there
Why do I keep biting on the edge of my chin?
It feels so good to have a taste of what I'm crawling in
I got to go, I got to lead the way
The chains of today, are pulling me
Even though I thought things over in my head
On if I'd stay, it's another ticket to your next game
Wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
I'll still be leaving you today now
Shake up, shake up, now breakup, breakup
I know your little plans
(I know your little plans)
Would you see me when you stop winning?
So wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
'Cause I just got you back
Why did you keep talking out two sides of your mouth?
You didn't think I'd hear from people, hi, you're selling out
What did you think, making your deals that I couldn't keep up?
Manipulative, calculative, I bet you thought
I didn't know, I couldn't see
The spade displayed your plan for using me
You'd better bet your counterfeit, it's time to say goodnight
It's another reason to say, goodbye, goodbye, Buh-bye
Wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
I'll still be leaving you today now
Shake up, shake up, now breakup, breakup
I know your little plans
(I know your little plans)
Would you see me when you stop winning?
So wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
'Cause I just got you back
The coffee is brewing now
That's for me pouring now, ooh
Eyes open now I see
All that you take from me

Wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
I'll still be leaving you today now
Shake up, shake up, now breakup, breakup
I know your little plans
Would you see me when you stop winning?
So wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
I just got you back
Wake up, wake up now, wake up, wake up
