Just Words

Skout

Oh my god you know it's been a year
What the hell are we still doing here
I'm sorry that I couldn't be what you wanted
No, what you deserved from me

Oh, it don't feel good
No, it don't feel right
We only move in the dark of night
Words, weave themselves
They keep us warm without that light , light, liiiiight

Baby, please don't go
Can we dance another night, I
I don't know that I'll ever get this right
So please do t go
Let's just dance another night

Oh, hold your tongue
You know we're still young
We've still got time, time, tiiiiime
Baby, save yourself
Get out my mind
Let's save that time, time, tiiiiiiiiime

Baby, please don't go
Let's just dance another night, I
I don't know that I'll ever get this right
But please don't go
Can we dance another night

Love be patient
Please be patient
Cause you have yet to be kind
Love be patient
Please be patient
Cause you have yet to be kind
Love be patient
Please be patient
Cause you have yet to be kind
Love be patient

Please be patient
Cause you have yet to be kind
Love be patient
Please be patient
Cause you have yet to be kind
