

Let's Make Evil

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Let's make evil, let's make good
I'd do anything I could
Just to get you in my dirt word
Go down on you Seventeen and thirty-one
I am just my mother's son
Brown eyes and a silver tongue
All the mothers come undone
At the sight of me The water's falling clear
Interiors deceive I fear
I think I'll kiss my shame away
My prudence is not dear
Inside out and feeling weird
I think I'll kiss my shame away Let's get soft, let's get hard
Let's get off in my backyard
Where the desert wind
Will wash our skin a lighter red Let's make peace, let's make war
Let's break into heaven for
A dance with heaven's devils or
Is that more than you can store
Inside your head The water's falling clear
Interiors deceive I fear
I think I'll kiss my shame away
My prudence is not dear
Inside out and feeling weird
I think I'll kiss my shame away I don't want to live alone
Get on my throne
Slay my shame
Slay my shame Let's get gentle, let's get pissed
Get your knickers in a twist
'Cause the angel and the devil kiss
They fell in love Some seem dirty, some say clean
Something from a madman's dream
Am I really what I seem?
Rising to my head like cream
It feels so strange The water's falling clear
Interiors deceive I fear
I think I'll kiss my shame away
My prudence is not dear
Inside out and feeling weird

I think I'll kiss my shame away
Slay my shame, slay my shame
I don't want to live alone
Get on my throne
Slay my shame, slay my shame
