

Song for Jonas

John Kloberdanz

I want to live like a bird in the air, like the wind running through her wings
Free as the sky, free as the clouds, not to think about anything
Fly through the air and glide through the time
And forget what to do and forget what to sing
I want to live like a bird in the air, like the wind running through her wings

I want to be like the tree in my yard, live each day like the only one
Strong are the roots that dig through the ground, branches shading the morning sun
Casting across as you drift through the days
Days that will end when the days are done
I want to be like the tree in my yard, live each day as the only one

I want to hold you close in my arms and forget everything I see
I want to watch as you close your eyes 'cause you know that you're safe with me
If I could hold our time in my hands
I wouldn't know what I should do, I wouldn't know where I should be
I want to hold you close in my arms and forget everything I see

I want to live like a bird in the air, like the wind running through her wings
Free as the sky, free as the clouds, not to think about anything
Fly through the air and glide through the time
And forget what to do and forget what to sing
I want to live like a bird in the air, like the wind running through her wings
