Broken

Ramin Karimloo

She claps her hands together
And prays that God will hear her
So she can finally be savedShe says "Good night, I love you,"
"I'll leave the light on for you,"
They think that she is very braveBroken, Broken,
She will never be the same
Broken, Broken,
She will never be the sameIt's time to think things over
To figure out what happened
But the answer's somehow lackI can't seem to tell her
That I'm scared of losing
When it's too late to turn backBroken, Broken,
She will never be the same
Broken, Broken,
She will never be the sameWoah, Woah oh, Woah, Woah oh
Woah, Woah oh, Woah, Woah ohShe keeps repeating to me
Why it happened to her
"What did I do that was wrong?"So look at me and tell me
Please, don't try to save me
Have you loved me all along?Broken, Broken,
She will never be the same
Broken, Broken,
She will never be the same1, 2, 3, 4!Woah, Woah oh, Woah, Woah oh,
Woah, Woah oh, Woah, Woah oh
