

Eve

Chantal Kreviazuk

Eve is gone again
Back to her palace
Back to her island
Eve can smile again
And run 'round the hedges
In the Garden of Eden
Run the way you did before the nightmares
Run just like before the overkill
Run the way you did, it's over, darlin'
Oh, could I be so gentle
Oh, so soft and tender
Oh, and could I forgive
And could I die in my mother's arms like her
Eve's a child again
Sing her a lullaby
Read to her every night
Eve's in heaven
Plenty of friends are there
No one the enemy
Run the way you did before the nightmares
Run just like before the overkill
Run the way you did, it's over, darlin'
Oh, could I be so gentle
Oh, so soft and tender
Oh, and could I forgive
And could I die in my mother's arms like her
Like her, like her
Run the way you did before the nightmares
Run just like before the overkill
Run the way you did, it's over, darlin'
Run the way you did before the nightmares
Run just like before the overkill
Run the way you did, it's over, darlin'
Could I die in my mother's arms like her
