Tuesday's Child

Trouble

If I should speak to all the angels
What would I say, would it be okay?
And if I had the gift of prophecy
What would I see, would you believe in me?And if I only had the love that you need
I can't believe that I'm living in greed
And if I had a chance to feed the poor
Would everyone get to eatWill I have a seat
And if I was the man with (All the)
Answers, what would I learn
And would it be my turnAnd if I only had the love that you need
I can't believe that I'm living in greed
Hold on Tuesday, Tuesday hold on It's gonna be alright, you gotta believe
