Mine Again (feat.Kristin Kelly)

Black Lab

there's a place I used to go there's a world I used to know there was a light and it was you every word I say is true I say -every day I will wait - till youre mine again I will die every day - till youre mine again theres no words to explain - no beginning and no end I will dream, I will pray - youll be mine againI can see you dressed in red all the secret things you said lying barefoot in the grass now my heart is in your hands your hands -every day I will wait - till youre mine again I will die every day - till youre mine again
theres no words to explain - no beginning and no end I will dream, I will pray - youll be mine againit's just time that runs between us it's the ocean underneath us it's the picture that won't fade awayevery day I will wait - youll be mine again brings me close to the day - youll be mine again theres no words to explain - no beginning and no end I will dream, I will pray - youll be mine again
