

I'm Not The One (Kid Lightning)

Kid lightning

I'm not the one
that you'll be shooting for I'm not the one
who's coming back for more

you why
been through this so many times
you why
its never clear its spent a mind

going round and round
cause you can't get on your feet
round and round
still taking all the heat
round and round
never touching down

whose memory you're still keeping
you dream of when you're sleeping

you why
I dont have to tell you twice
you why
I knew you when you weren't so nice

round and round
round and round
still taking on the heat

that you'll be breaking in
that you'll be taking in

I tried, I tried to crack the shell
you why
when you fake its hard to tell

round and round and round and round

you're taking all the heat round and round and round
