World's Biggest Fool

Rhonda Vincent

I'm not that lonely anymore
I hardly ever walk the floor
I don't cry every night like I used toNo, I don't wear your stupid ring
I wouldn't hang on to the thing
It's the last thing I have to hold on toAnd if you believe that you believe anything
So while I've got your undivided attention
I think I discovered the truth
One of us is the world's biggest foolI took your pictures off the wall
There's nothing left 'round here at all
To remind me of when we were togetherYeah, life is perfect everyday
There ain't a thing that I would change
And I hope that it stays like this foreverAnd if you believe that you believe anything
So while I've got your undivided attention
I think I discovered the truth
One of us is the world's biggest foolYeah, I blame you and you blame me
That's what they said in therapy
Now we say that we're through with one anotherI hope the dog is doing fine
No, I still haven't changed my mind
And you know I love livin' with my motherAnd if you believe that you believe anything
So while I've got your undivided attention
I think I discovered the truth
One of us is the world's biggest fool
Oh, yeah, I think I discovered the truth
One of us is the world's biggest fool
