Untouchable

Dakona

Baby open your eyes,
and take a look around.
There was child within you, oh no no,
'til you beat her down, down, down.
All the times I wondered...Chorus:
Have I seen too much, you can't touch me
I'm untouchable
Do I know so much, you can't love me
I'm unlovableDo I even know, do I even know, do I even know What's best for me?
oh what's best for me.Riding in the wasteland,
Just across the street.
Theres on nothing on the television baby to knock me off of my feet
All the times I wondered...
