

Almost Home

Ben Rector

I lost my shoes in New York City
So I bought some new, because that felt fitting
But the pavement underneath them walked those city streets and felt alive
I almost quit in Oklahoma
Ten years out here will take a toll, yeah
One million miles of fear and beauty
I could not explain it even if I tried
That's alright...

Cause we're almost, we're almost home
Cause we're almost, we're almost home
Cause we're almost, we're almost home
yeahh

I was offered hope and fear and savior
I was offered sex from total strangers mmm

And with all that noise around me,
I found a peace that I could call my own
And we're almost home, ohh oh yeah
Cause we're almost, we're almost home
But we're almost, we're almost home
But we're almost, we're almost home

Yeahhh, uh huh huh

And we're almost, we're almost home
Just another hundred miles and then it's done
We're almost, we're almost home ohhh
Seen a lifetime of pain and beauty
Ohhh felt fear and joy running through me, yeah
You can lose yourself out on this road
We're almost, almost home

And we're almost, almost home
But we're almost, almost home yeah yeahhh
And we're almost, almost home
Just another thousand miles and then we're done
We're almost, we're almost home
