Sometimes I wonder if God laughs at me

I hear His voice when I sleep

Sometimes I wonder if the Holy Ghost

Is haunting me in my dreams

Save me

Save me

Sometimes I wonder, does an angel die?

Rest in peace, here with me?

Sometimes I wonder if a soul can cry?

I feel a pain next to mine

Can you hear me?

Can you hear me?

I don't think He died for me

I know that Heaven is a burnt out shell

I know forgiveness is the door to Hell

I know confession is a black empty lie

Look in my eyes, look in my eyes

Save me

Save me

Save me

Save me

I know that Heaven is a burnt out shell

I know forgiveness is the door to Hell

I know confession is a black empty lie

Look in my eyes, look in my eyes
