

Lie Together All Night

Shwayze

For just one night I want to be your man
We can get high and watch the sunrise
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get just lie
Lie together all night
It's Friday night
That means it on
Going everywhere
And we drinkin' patron
Hands in the air
And we party till' dawn
All the pretty girls sayin'
(Gimme' ya love)
I'm in the spotlight
I'm startin' to squint
She got me for my money but it's already spent
I know she's gonna love me when I'm rich again
She'll be down on her knees sayin'
(Gimme' ya love)
It's a funny thing
The type of drama that money bring
Diva eyes watering like an onion ring
Then had the never to lie right in front of me
Don't lie girl
Less ya lyin' under me
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get high and watch the sunrise
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get just lie
Lie together all night
It's Saturday night
That means it's on
She's in her high heels
So she thinks she grown
But she's a little girl
And she's all alone
Lookin' for her daddy sayin'

(Gimme' ya love)

I'm in the high life
Like a Miller beer
Our weed have to cost about a mill a year
Do you wanna get high
You can meet me right here
West coast bitch
(Gimme' ya love)
It's some funny shit
How the weed make ya chicken get
Then ya broke
And she eat all your chicken strips
And had the nerve
To blame it on some other shit
Don't lie
Less' I'm the one ya lyin' with
Ya know what i mean?
Let's lie together all night
(All I wanna do is be your man)
I lie to you
You lie with me
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get high and watch the sunrise
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get just lie
Lie together all night
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get high and watch the sunrise
For just one night I want to be your man
We can get just lie
Lie together all night
Lemme' tell you bout' a girl I know
She like hip-hop and rock and roll
Lemme' tell you bout' a girl I know
She like hip-hop and rock and roll
