

Pobody's Nerfect

Wolf Parade

Early morning
Sun is risen
Gold, chrome, Anastasia

Wake up slowly
Out the window
Someone calls for Anastasia

And I don't know how to stop it at all
I just don't know how to stop it at all
And I don't know how to stop, Anastasia

He wants your heart
And its little fictions
But he just hasn't earned it yet, baby

So raise your hand
As he's explaining
How they built this city on cocaine lasers

And I don't know how to stop it at all
You just don't know how to stop it at all
And you don't know how to stop, Anastasia

Morning will turn, turn everything back to gold

So kill the lights
For slow, slow dancing
Oh, as if no one will notice

And sing your songs
Sing 'em all out, baby
If it's out of key, well, nobody's perfect

And you don't know how to stop it at all
You just don't know how to stop it at all
You don't know how to stop it, Anastasia

And you don't know how to stop it at all
You just don't know how to stop it at all

And you don't know how to stop it

Morning will turn, turn everything back to gold

Oh you never know, you never know, know about
How his little heart, his little heart is feeling so down

Oh you never know, you never know, know about
How his little heart, his little heart is feeling so down
