Faster N Further - Bass Modulators Remix

Noisecontrollers

nothing is what it seems
we have to jump
faster
and faster
faster
the universe is full of contradictions,deceptions,traps right now we have to jump its captivated our imaginations haunted our dreams and here it is, spinning before our eyes an infinitely dense point erupts our time is limited
we need to take our own giant leap
we have to jump
were standing on a cliff looking in to the solar systems mysterious outer reaches to reach its edge
we have to DANCE
