

Girl Money

Kix

Yeah yeah yeah
Girl money
Girl money
Girl moneyI was sittin' alone but not very long
She had a weakness for comin' on strong
She was licking my fingers and drinking my booze
She whispered sweet nothings, I said, "Babe, is it true?"What'd you say?
Show me yours and I'll show you mine
What'd you do?
Ordered a bottle of the finest French wine
Where'd you go?
I was heading for heaven when she took the wheel
She took me to the cleaners, she knows how it feelsOut all night, time to get started
Saving all week for her bedroom party
Dollar for her drink, dollar for the honey
Burnin' a hole, gonna spend my girl money
Girl moneyLong legged Rosie from Baltimore
Took me farther than I've been before
Oh, she loved me for those diamonds and pearls
Took me for a ride, took me around the worldWhat'd you day?
What'd you do?
Where'd you go?
Yeah yeahCome on babyCome on baby keep drivin' me crazy
You know the story I'm speaking of Champagne, red roses and limos
Head first to the tunnel of loveSometimes you're out, sometimes you're in Sometimes you lose but sometimes you win
Playing the game, paying the price
We're throwing a party and you're coming tonight, yeah yeahOut all night, time to get started
Saving all week for her bedroom party
Dollar for her drink, dollar for the honey
Burnin' a hole, gonna spend my girl moneyOut all night, time to get started
Saving all week for her bedroom party
Dollar for her drink, dollar for the honey
Burnin' a hole, gonna spend my girl money
Spend my girl money
Girl moneyGirl money
Girl money
Girl money
