

On Wings Of Integrity

MyChildren MyBride

Bitter thoughts test morals and encourage bitter action, pride comes before all think before you speak if you even speak at all, SPEAK AT ALL ill relinquish your heavy hearts of pain and sorry, healing sutures

an unguarded queen pursues, oblivious of her future i dont, i dont expect anything, we are all helpless, but i stay confident with willingness to take control, we'll make our time well spent let it sink in,

every word that i said
LET IT SINK IN,
let in sink in,
every word you heard me say conquering anything and everything THROWN AT US we will not be torn, our hearts will stand, they will stand as one (x2)

WE WILL SOAR! (x3)

my victory in sight, a steady heart will not, will not collide with misfortune, oh the integrity (x2)
