Stone's Throw Away

Brother Cane

Yeah, got this feelin', the scars are healin'
I'm tired of dealin' with thoughts runnin' 'round my head
It's fate I'm kissin', not only wishin'
Won't even listen when the world is comin' down
Never find peace of mind, stand here watin'
No more yesterdays to question why
Need to recover, follow no otherIt's just a stone's throw away
I feel it wellin' up inside
You've got to understand it's just
A stone's throw away, yesOh time is right now, now that I found out
Found out despite how the path is wastin' away
Drop the noose and begin to choose and
The thought of losin' never entered in my game
Believe in fate to carry through and make me holy Bein' unrealistic ordinary
It don't relate here, just you wait dearIt's just a stone's throw away
I feel it wellin' up inside
You've got to understand it's just
A stone's throw away, yesIf you ever take it lightly
Wipe the spit in your eye
Step aside'
It's just a stone's throw awayIt's just a stone's throw away
I feel it wellin' up inside
You've got to understand it's just
A stone's throw away, yes
